

Changing the lives of Veterans in need

The Veterans' Foundation has a mission: to support and champion a national network of charities and projects whose work is dedicated to helping our Armed Forces family in need. Since inception in 2016, the Veterans' Foundation has assisted more than 230 organisations deliver a wide range of life-changing initiatives. We have achieved this by awarding more than £3.5million in grants to projects that:

- Reduce homelessness and poverty
- Support Veterans with mental health problems such as PTSD
- Help Veterans with physical injury
- Assist children and young people who have lost a parent(s) in service
- Deliver training for Veterans to build a career as a civilian
- Projects of Armed Forces remembrance

The Veterans' Foundation raises its funding through donations, fundraising activities, the Veterans' Lottery and the British Armed Forces Wall.
